In Loving Memory of Antonio Samuel Coho

With profound sadness and deep love, we announce the passing of Antonio Samuel Coho, who departed this life on June 11, 2026, at Red Hills Health & Rehab at the age of 22.

Antonio was born on September 5, 2003, at Cibola General Hospital to his loving parents, Celinda Lee and Clifford Coho. He was raised with the values of family, hard work, and compassion at the cherished Lee Ranch in New Mexico, a place he proudly called home and where countless memories were made with those he loved most.

Though his time with us was far too short, Antonio lived a life marked by kindness, laughter, and an unwavering love for his family and friends. His gentle spirit, warm heart, and unforgettable smile touched everyone who knew him, and his memory will forever remain a source of comfort and inspiration to those he leaves behind.

Antonio Samuel Coho was raised at the beloved Lee Ranch in New Mexico, where he developed a deep appreciation for family, the outdoors, and the simple joys of life.

Growing up surrounded by the beauty of the Southwest, he carried with him the values of kindness, loyalty, hard work, and compassion throughout his life. He attended elementary, middle, and high school in Ramah, New Mexico, and Fredonia, Arizona. Antonio later lived in Lee Ranch, Albuquerque, and Grants, New Mexico, as well as Fredonia, Arizona, where he formed lasting friendships and created treasured memories.

For more than five years, Antonio worked as a dedicated housekeeper at Zion Mountain Ranch, taking great pride in his work. He was known for his reliability, positive attitude, and willingness to lend a helping hand to anyone in need. Antonio embraced life with enthusiasm and gratitude. He loved fishing, drawing, listening to music, playing his guitar, and watching his favorite football team, the Arizona Cardinals. He was always eager for an adventure, whether it was exploring a new place, taking a spontaneous road trip, or spending time outdoors with his beloved dogs by his side.

Above all, Antonio treasured his family. Some of his happiest memories were gathered around the table, enjoying good food, sharing stories, and laughing with the family. He also enjoyed playing games with friends, where a little friendly competition always led to smiles and lasting memories.

Though his time on earth was far too brief, Antonio lived with authenticity, joy, and love. His generous heart, adventurous spirit, and genuine kindness touched countless lives and left a lasting impression on everyone who knew him. His memory will continue to inspire those who loved him, and his legacy will forever remain in their hearts.

Antonio Samuel Coho is lovingly remembered by his parents, Celinda Lee and Clifford Coho, and by his three brothers: his older brother, Pedro Coho, and his two younger brothers, Julio Coho and Navarro Coho. He also leaves behind many cherished relatives and friends who will forever hold his memory close to their hearts.

Antonio found his greatest happiness in spending time with his family and friends, sharing laughter, adventures, and moments that created lasting memories.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Elouise Lee, who passed away before he was born but whose legacy remained an important part of his family's history. He was also preceded in death by his grandfather, Nelson Lee and by his great uncle,

Kenneth Lee, the brother of his grandfather Nelson, whose memory remained an important part of the Lee family's legacy.

Antonio's life was a blessing to all who knew him, and his memory will continue to live through the love of his family and the countless lives he touched.
