Christine Miriam Woodson Wright

February 11, 1949, ~ October 30, 2025

Christine “Chris” Wright passed away peacefully at her home on Thursday, October 30, 2025, at the age of 76.

Chris was born on February 11, 1949, to Carl and Nellie (Dennis) Woodson in Norfolk, Virginia. At the age of 19, she moved to Utah, where she later joined the Air Force Reserve.

In 1970, she married Brent C. Lundstedt, and together they had three children before divorcing in 1977. In 1980, she married John Lloyd Wright, and through that union, her family grew to include John’s three children from his previous marriage. John passed away on January 10, 2021.

Chris is survived by her children, Diana (Mike) Munn, Brent (JoDee) Lundstedt, Michael (Shelley) Lundstedt, Troy (Bonnie) Wright, Carrie (Gary) Wright Fischer, and Shauna (Gary) Stokes; fourteen grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; her beloved cat, Marley; and her sister, Susan Thomas.

In 1990, Chris and John moved to St. George, Utah—a place they quickly fell in love with and never wanted to leave. She studied at Dixie College and later retired from Zion Eye Institute.

Chris had a zest for life and a generous heart. She enjoyed her trips to Mesquite with her dear friends, sharing laughter and good luck at the slot machines. She adored her family, especially her grandchildren, who brought her endless joy, and her beloved cat Marley, who was her constant companion. Anyone who visited her home was greeted with their favorite treats, and her famous Christmas fudge was a family favorite. Chris never missed a detail when it came to making others feel special.

Chris was deeply loved by all who knew her and will be tremendously missed.

A celebration of life will be held Saturday, March 21, 2026 at her home in St. George, Utah
