

Doris May Gall

March 11, 1930 - September 15, 2025

In Loving Memory of Doris May Gall

Doris May Gall, a cherished resident of Hurricane, Utah, passed away peacefully on September 15, 2025, at St. George Hospital. She was born on March 11, 1930, in Norfolk, Virginia, to Marion Robert Hemby and Melissa May Strickland Hemby.

Doris was preceded in death by her husband, Robert Dean, whom she married on January 31, 2017, in Logan, Utah, and by her husband Alex Gall, whom she married on June 2, 1970, and remained devoted to until his passing in 2003. She is survived by her children: John Alan Dade of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Launa Lee Nessler of Hurricane, Utah; nine grandchildren; and sixteen great-grandchildren. She was also preceded in death by her eldest daughter, Shi Anne, and her youngest son, Robert Arthur. After spending her early years on the East Coast, Doris moved to California in 1943. She married John Milton Dade, Jr., in 1945, and together they had four children who grew up in and around Los Angeles and Orange Counties. A gifted hostess with a flair for design, Doris pursued interior design studies and, alongside Alex Gall, opened a successful drapery business that reflected her creativity and entrepreneurial spirit.

She retired to Lake Havasu, Arizona, in the early 1990s and later settled in Lava Bluff, Utah, in 1999. Known for her exceptional skills as a seamstress and her warm hospitality, Doris was also an avid traveler who explored much of the United States. Independent and resilient, she remained in her own home until just days before her passing.

Condolences may be sent to Launa Nessler at 112 N 3950 W, Hurricane, UT 84737.
